SECTION B DISCIPLINE

B(a) This section of the rules looks at Discipline in the League, ECB Code of Conduct & League Rules

B(b) These Regulations incorporate the latest 2017 ECB Disciplinary Regulations for Leagues augmented by GMCL detailed procedures for reporting disciplinary offences and subsequent actions. It is expected that the ECB General Code of Conduct will change during 2021 and our code will be reconsidered at that time.

B(c) These regulations will apply to all GMCL competitions, the Regulations generally apply to all those playing, officiating, watching and commenting on cricket matches and related issues – defined as Participants in a previous version of the ECB Disciplinary Regulations.

B(d) Most of the Regulations relate to offences committed by players during matches and which are then reported by the umpires, i.e. players are the principal Participants. Other Participants include team coaches/managers, scorers, other club officials and members, and spectators.

B(e) The Regulations also specifically deal with the misuse of social media which applies to all Participants.

B(f) The 2017 ECB Disciplinary Regulations for Leagues also include guidance for an Internal Club Enquiry, Natural Justice, Conduct of Hearings, Appeal Process and Players Behaviour. These documents are available on the website.
